

Walter Dietl
Partner

walter.dietl@osb-i.com
T +43 1 526 08 13 0
M +43 664 854 54 57

osb Wien Consulting GmbH
Volksgartenstr. 3/1. DG
1010 Vienna, Austria

www.osb-i.com

»Successful consulting supports clients so that they have more options and opportunities for action at the end of the consulting process than they had at the beginning.«

Walter Dietl

»More possibilities«

- Partner, osb international
- Consulting with a primary focus on strategy development, organizational design, leadership, and organizational development

Recent consulting activities

- Strategy development and organizational design projects for companies and organizational units
- Consulting for management teams on strategic realignment, strategy implementation, and change management, as well as in teambuilding
- Conception and moderation of international management conferences
- Training and coaching of executives
- Training for in-house and external consultants

Professional background

- Studied management and business at Vienna University of Economics and Business, graduating in 1991
- Studied group dynamics and organizational consulting at the University of Educational Studies, Klagenfurt
- Studied at the Austrian Association for Group Dynamics and Organizational Consulting (ÖGGO)
- Training and continuing education in systemic structure constellations (M. Varga von Kibéd / Insa Sparrer), intercultural management (M. Hammer / IDI), organizational development and assessment of potential (Hogan, OPQ, etc.)
- Founding member of the Vienna Institute for HR Development and Management Training
- Controller at iR3 Video International (video production for Philips and Grundig)
- Management consulting advisor at Daimler AG, head of the Center of Competence for value-based management in the area of management consulting
- Executive Board member, osb international Consulting AG, 2005–2010