

Dr. Tania Lieckweg
Partner

tania.lieckweg@osb-i.com
T +49 30 51 30 73 74
M +49 173 633 50 61

osb Berlin GmbH
Oranienburger Str. 90
10178 Berlin, Germany

www.osb-i.com

»Intelligent leadership systems enable the organization to self-renewal.«

Dr. Tania Lieckweg

»Organization and Leadership: Both need constant adjustment towards the future.«

- Partner, osb international
- Systemic organizational and management consultant on leadership, strategy development, as well as change management and organizational development

Recent consulting activities

- Consulting for management teams on strategy implementation, organizational design and change management
- Implementation of new leadership models
- Strategy development and strategic realignment projects for companies and organizational units
- Coaching and support for executives and management teams
- Executive training for senior and junior management
- Conception and development of learning architectures and leadership academies

Professional Background

- Studied sociology at the University of Bielefeld
- PhD in economics at Witten/Herdecke University
- Study and research at the State University of St. Petersburg and the European University Institute (EUI), Florence
- Various management positions at academic and research facilities, senior consultant at Malik Management
- Trained in systemic organizational consulting with Prof. Dr. Fritz B. Simon and in systemic coaching with Prof. Dr. Wilhelm Backhausen